On Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, 1873 Dover, N. H., December 19, 1873. Rev. George B. Spalding: Dear Sir - Having listened with great interest on last Thanksgiving Day to your discourse commemorative of the late Hon. John P. Hale, we are of opinion that its publication would be of great service in helping mankind to form a true estimate of Mr. Hale's character and achievements. We would therefore respectfully request you to place the discourse at our disposal, for publication in pamphlet form. Very truly, your obedient servants, E. H. Rollins. Z. S. Wallingford.
