Hosts of young people are growing up in the midst of the Latter-day Saints, and still others have attained to manhood and womanhood in the Church, who never saw those noble martyrs whose lives were sacrificed in establishing the gospel upon the earth. Thousands of others have also gathered under the gospel banner from the various nations of the earth since their death. While such persons may be devoted followers of those early leaders, and may cherish a love and veneration for their memory, they are forced to depend in great part upon the verbal testimony of their parents or others who had the pleasure of a personal acquaintance, for their knowledge of the character, lives and tragic death of Joseph and Hyrum Smith. True, much has been written and published at various times in the Church upon this subject, but not in a concise and authentic shape. The facts as published are scattered through the various volumes of the Times and Seasons, Millennial Star, Juvenile Instructor and other publication, which few students have access to. It is our intention to publish, in book form, as soon as possible, a detailed History of Joseph Smith; in fact, the most of the copy for it is already prepared.
