Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 154 pages. The Case for Christ and Against the Devil is a hard-line expose of political medicine (AMA) and the unholy alliance between the drug houses and M. D. s and the need for closer professional cooperation between all healthcare providers. It shows how the devil gets into organized medicine, politics, families and even churches and causes hatred and divisiveness. It is primarily a health care oriented and medical expose book on how to improve your healthcare. It reveals how MDs are the third largest cause of death after heart disease and cancer in America, and how 3, 000 people die every week from unnecessary medications and surgery. How not to become a victim of what is a modern day medical holocaust. Learn how to maximize your health care using the four branches of healthcare intelligently and not become a victim. Dr Wilk sued the AMA and won a major landmark criminal antitrust lawsuit which brought about closer inter-professional cooperation with safer, more effective and cost efficient health care. The suit took 14 years and went to the Supreme Court twice before he won his case but lost his wife and entire family in the process because of the influence of the devil. (See Wilk et al vs. AMA et al also Medicine, Monopolies and Malice on your Google search engine) He received over 20 awards including one of the three most respected chiropractors in America as well as Americas Chiropractor of the Year. He is a well respected and responsible person with an amazing and unbelievable story which needs to be told. As a youngster and into his middle 20s he had a family friend named Mrs. Budek who came over to his home, always unannounced, and told him exactly what hed be doing...
