Pearson Education Limited. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Gangsta Rap, Benjamin Zephaniah, The story of three boys who aren't easy. Who don't fit in. Who know what they want. When Ray and his friends are permanently excluded from school, their headmaster gives them a final chance. Within weeks they form a rap group and within months they sign a record deal. As competition from a rival group intensifies the gangsta style gets mixed up with real gangster action. An accessible read with a hard-hitting plot which 'leaves the reader no choice but to be drawn in' -- particularly reluctant boy readers. Perfect for exploring different kinds of speech, language and the poetry of rap.
