Our world has become a casualty of religion due to the reckless and fluid misunderstanding of religious scriptures. Criterion for Muslim-Christian Peace is a brazen attempt to end this regime of ignorance by outlining principles that could guide our rationalities and promote peaceful cohabitation. The book avail itself with the Opportunity to know and be able to express what is necessary for peaceful coexistence and what should be the content our thoughts in relation to our fellow humans. The Author attempts short of being academic and elitist, is not unaware of the great gulf separating the two faiths and their less informed audiences. Howbeit, this attempt is laudable. Criterion for Muslim-Christian Peace is the engagement of issues that should occupy our thought pattern while relating with each another in a friendly and lovely atmosphere devoid of hatred and bitterness, with mutual respect for one another. I recommend this book to proponents of the Islamic faith, Christians, adherents of other faiths, states-men, politicians, and all the lovers of peace, for knowledge, progress and conflict resolution. Zadok Ahimaaz Adiga. God is no author of confusion but of true Peace and Love. All efforts or attempts to find peace outside him will remain futile. The writer did not mince words in this compendium. This work is indeed the Panacea to the global terror war. Abayomi Ejibunu.
