It was in the writing of that letter that she took account of her actual self, for in wording it she had naturally summed up. I am not just sure whether I entirely suit or not, she told Barbara. Sometimes I feel so different. Of course they all love me, even Vita the cook, and I love them fondly, but don t you know, Babs, you always told me I saw foohey and you would not explain what it was to be that way? But I guess I am, whatever it is, for a lot of alterations have already been ordered, she wrote. My new outdoor clothes have arrived, the letter ran, they are of brown cloth (she avoided the use of the word khaki) and they will stand a lot of hard wear. Cousin Jerry says we get them that color and so we won t scare the birds and other woodland creatures. They are supposed to think we are part of the landscape. Nora then told of the attic, and its chest of treasures, and added she expected to try on a couple of outfits the very first day she was free from accompanying the surveying party[.].
