Young Peter Daniel, accompanied by his faithful dog Mo, plays all day with his friends, experiencing the world around him until his father's call ends the day. Once Peter Daniel closes his eyes, however, he drifts off to dreamland, a magical place full of wonderful adventures. From a sailing ship catching the wind full sail to a locomotive steaming across the land, Peter Daniel travels far and wide on the wings of his wild, boundless imagination. Stretching the boundaries of our world with outrageous abandon, Allen Morford's introductory volume into the world of Peter Daniel is a wide-eyed journey into the heart of our unlimited imaginations. First grounded in the reality of Peter Daniel's normal daytime world, we are quickly carried away on astonishing new journeys in his unexpectedly wild dream world. Taking its cues from the works of Dr. Seuss, The Incredible Dream World of Peter Daniel possesses a magical rhythm enhanced by artwork that creates unlimited possibilities of landscape and color.
